ABOUT ME

I've had the opportunity to see and experience many different sides of travel.

But what I love most is taking someone's travel idea and turning it into a reality.

I'm naturally fun, adventurous and always ready to try something new, and I love bringing that personality into the trips I create.

For me, travel isn't just about booking a trip, it's about creating experiences, making memories and giving people something to look forward to.

FAVORITE HOLIDAY MEMORIES

Some of my favourite travel memories are taking my daughter travelling from a young age and showing her the world, as well as enjoying amazing experiences with friends and family. I've also been lucky enough to experience some incredible destinations through work incentive trips.

I love the magic of Disney, the beauty of the Caribbean, sunny beach days, amazing local food and dancing into the evening. I love the variety that travel brings. For me, it's all about great experiences, having fun and creating memories that last a lifetime.
